Dear Principal,

Please allow my child _____ in _____ grade to attend the Saint Martin de Porres School Lego Club on selected Monday afternoons. I understand that my child will attend the program on school grounds immediately following dismissal. I understand that the teachers/staff are volunteering to coordinate this program and my child will need to be picked up by 3:45 PM or they will be sent to the After School Program and all fees will apply. I understand that my child’s behavior in this program needs to meet the expectations of the program and that this is a club and not a child care service. I understand that transportation from the program will be provided by myself or the person (s) that I have designated below. I understand that the school authorities will take reasonable precautions against accident, personal injury and loss of, or damage to, property while attending all meetings, but they or the Archdiocese of New York are not assuming any legal liability for any such occurrence except any liability based on their failure to take such reasonable precautions.

My child has permission to be picked up and transported from this program by the following individuals...
